

I hope to see the number portability issues PASSED, I would like to maintain my same wireless phone number as I change carriers. This is a convinence to myself, my family, and my contacts. I find myself updating business cards, letterhead, and having to contact all associates each time I switch deals, regarding a new number. This becomes a financial burden as well as a time expense.